The screenshot displays the login interface for Piktochart. At the top, the browser's address bar shows the URL create.piktochart.com. The main content area features the Piktochart logo and a 'Sign in with' section. This section includes two buttons: a blue 'Google' button with the Google logo and a blue 'Facebook' button with the Facebook logo. Below these buttons is the text 'or with email'. Underneath, there are two input fields: 'Email' and 'Password'. A 'Sign In' button is positioned below the input fields. To the right of the main content, there is a 'FEATURED AND USED BY' section. This section lists several media outlets: Forbes, theguardian, TechCrunch, Booking.com, Typeform, and MOZ. Below this list is a profile picture of Stewart Kirkpatrick, with the text 'Our most popular Piktochart received 1,547 shares on Facebook and therefore reached an audience of 169,399.' Below the profile picture, it says 'Stewart Kirkpatrick YES Scotland'. At the bottom of this section, there are three statistics: '41,380,416 Piktocharts Created', '20,336,486 Registered Users', and '1,039 Beautiful Templates'.

- It's a blank template: A white poster with a green plus sign icon.
- Coronavirus Hygiene Instructio...: A red and black poster titled 'COVID-19' with a 'FEATURED' badge, containing instructions on how to protect others and wash hands.
- Coronavirus Protection Basics: A white poster titled 'PROTECTIVE MEASURES' with a 'FEATURED' badge, featuring icons and text for various protective actions like hand hygiene, face masks, and avoiding contact.
- We're Hiring: A blue poster with a 'FEATURED' badge, listing job titles: UI/UX Designer, Email Marketer, Growth Hacker, Senior Java Developer.
- New Vacancies: A dark blue poster with a 'FEATURED' badge, featuring the text '>> ARE YOU READY FOR THE NEW CHALLENGE?' and an image of a person working.

On the right side of the image, there is a separate white box with a dark blue background, containing a 'FEATURED' badge, 'Use Template' and 'Preview' buttons, and the text 'A4 (210 x 297 mm)' and 'New Vacancies'.
